The Voyage Continues

by John Robinson (Editor)

Welcome aboard for our next installment of "The Lazy Sheet". I would like to take this space to thank all of you who: a) read the newsletter and b) who had kind things to say to me about my efforts. I will even take the message received by E-mail from "Sailnut@juno.com" as a complement (yes, I'm sure that it WILL get better as time goes by).

When I told Roger that I would be happy to do the newsletter, I could have sworn that he said "It pay's a lot". Now I know that what he really said was: "You'll PRAY alot". Hmmm, I guess that I should have my hearing checked. Anyway... from the plush, sprawling offices of the Lake Mission Viejo Yacht Club Newsletter (actually it is the phone booth in front of Carl's Jr. on La Paz) we'll try to put this month's copy out with some good information in a fun format. Look for more poetry (?) from our Mystery Poet (I still don't have a clue who it is) as well as the official LMVYC 1998 Sailing and Social Calendar.

I invite any and all members to join in the fun by submitting articles, jokes (clean one's), pictures, things for sale (or sail) to me by fax (714) 546-3733, hand written on a lunch bag, or E-mailed (LMVYCNEWS@AOL.com). I will see to it that it gets published and you get the credit.

In the meantime, sit back, enjoy your favorite beverage and read on.

I'm not a complete idiot.....
Some parts are missing.

Chili Cook-off (April 19th Regatta)

Are you ready ??? This is a call to all you chili cooks who think that you have the hottest stuff goin'. If you want to enter your rump-burnin', hole-scorchin', fire-belchin', mouth-of-hell style recipe then by all means call up little ol' Linda Schaffner and tell her ! Numbers will be given to entrants to assure an impartial jury and we will eat and judge. A prize will be awarded to the winner. The only rule: You gotta be able to eat what you brung !

Dues Notice

Now is the time that dues are due. Family membership is $50 (a good bargain). Please send your checks to Vivienne Savage (or you can hand them to her at any one of our monthly regatta's or at the Wednesday Pizza night). We have a lot of good things planned for this sailing season and we rely upon your contribution to stay afloat.

Galley Notes

Rod and Audrey Simenz

Sunday March 22, more than 50 people came to help celebrate LMVYC's Opening Day and enjoy a delicious brunch. Tara Robison was the primary organizer and food preparer for the day. Tara also did all the decorations for the club house and tables with help from Roger and Hillary and encouragement (?) from Zak.

(cont.)

The Brunch menu featured a special egg dish recipe called Green Chili Cheese Relleno, sausages, fresh fruit, pastries, croissants, turkey plus poached salmon with mousseline sauce by Vivian Savage and a Gazpacho salad by Audrey Simenz.

After the races most people stayed on to polish off the leftovers and have some chocolate cake with fresh strawberry filling for desert.

Just about everyone pitched in on the "clean up and put away crew". Special thanks to all of you.

Be sure to join us at the next LMVYC feast which will be served after the Spring Regatta I on April 19th. This will be the much anticipated Chili Cook-Off competition with at least six chefs participating; each of whom believes "no one else even comes close".

Come enjoy the food and help judge the competition. Note: Bring your own TUMS, Pepcid AC, Pepto Bismol, etc.

Much thanks goes out to my "in-house video wizard" Leath Robinson for his time, efforts, and knowledge in helping me create the photo's for this month's edition. Who was it that said "knowledge is wasted on youth" ?

As promised last month, here are a couple more pieces of original prose offered by the "Mystery Poet".

Sughelhofer
Hugelshofer who dreamed a name like that but in a Finn
this hairy chin
will beat you tack for tack

Wind's so swirly
a boat's over early sail number, no one can say.
A hat gets tossed a start gets lost
the shine gave Rod away.

Linda and John

to catch some summer breezes.
John cried out
"Ready About"
but skipper does what she
